Children and healthy relationships

Ideally, children should know what healthy relationships look like in their own lives. This example is important for them to learn how to develop their own relationships. Children need to know that everyone has the right to feel safe and respected, and that violence and abuse are never okay in any relationship or interaction. Safe adults can talk about the importance of respect and kindness, and model that in their own relationships to show children how to navigate friendships, conflict, and other interactions. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Domestic Violence: Part 2" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

THE CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do; through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

The LORD said to Samuel: “Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen my king from among his sons.” As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice, Samuel looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is here before him.” But the LORD said to Samuel: “Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart.” In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any one of these.” Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Are these all the sons you have?” Jesse replied, “There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Send for him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here.” Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them. He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. The LORD said, “There—anoint him, for this is the one!” Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.

Lector: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 23: 1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

R. The Lord is my shep-herd; there is noth-ing I shall want.

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

Verses: The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. R.

He guides me in right paths for his name’s sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side
With your rod and your staff that give me courage. R.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. R.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come. R.

SECOND READING

Ephesians 5:8-14

Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.”

Lector: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

John 8:12

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life. R.

GOSPEL

John 9:1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" — which means Sent —. So he went and washed, and came back able to see. His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, "Isn't this the one who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is," but others said, "No, he just looks like him." He said, "I am." They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see." So some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath." But others said, "How can a sinful man do such signs?" And there was a division among them. So they said to the blind man again, "What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet." They answered and said to him, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" Then they threw him out. When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." He said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshiped him.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord. All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Raise your peo - ple to life.

OFFERTORY SONG (9:30 a.m.)

Guide Us, Lord - Mark Patterson

Guide us through these days, O, Lord; help us to seek your way, Trusting as you lead us with love, teach us again to pray.

Help us know you more clearly, Help us love you more dearly,

Help us follow you more nearly day by day Guide us, Lord, we pray.

Guide us through these days, O, Lord; help us to seek your way,

Seeking wisdom from your word, strengthen our tender faith. Help us know you...

When we stray and fall to sin Help us find your path again; Draw us closer in your fellowship of love.

Help us know you... Lead us, teach us, Guide us, Lord, we pray.

Join St. Paul the Apostle Music Ministry

If you feel called to deepen our liturgies through the beauty of sacred music, we warmly invite you to explore joining one of our choirs. The Schola Cantorum (11:30 a.m.) is devoted to preserving the sacred traditions of a cappella singing, motets, and chant, offering a profound and prayerful musical experience that honors the rich heritage of our Catholic faith. For those drawn to contemporary expressions of worship, the Caritas Choir (9:30 a.m.) brings vibrant, modern music to our services and occasionally collaborates with the St. Paul the Apostle School Children's Choir, adding youthful energy and community to our celebrations. If you're passionate about singing and wish to contribute to the reverence of our worship, please reach out to our Director of Music Ministry: Dr. Joung-A Monica Yum (jyum@sp-apostle.org)

We welcome singers who feel inspired to share their musical talents in service to our parish community. Join us in creating meaningful and uplifting worship experiences!

Care for Senior Paulists

Seminarian Spotlight: Andrew Ouma, C.S.P.

Your contributions to the Annual Paulist Appeal fund graduate school tuition, housing, and more for our Paulist seminarians such as Andrew Ouma.

He entered the Paulist novitiate in 2023 and made his First Promises in 2024.

A native of Kenya, Andrew earned an undergraduate degree in Philosophy with a minor in Religious Studies from The Catholic University of Eastern Africa in Nairobi.

Prior to entering the Paulist novitiate, he spent several years living in Brazil where he taught English to middle school students.

"I like seminary because it gives me the opportunity to sit down with the very fundamental questions of life, to be able to know and decide what God wants me to do in life, especially in terms of being a servant of the Church," said Andrew.

Interested in being on the SPA School Advisory Board?

You're in luck! The SPA School Advisory Board is now accepting submissions to be considered for membership.

What does the School Advisory Board do?

To start, this board is a different entity than the PWC board or the Sister Stella Foundation board. We are an advisory board and work closely with the principal and school leadership to consult on issues such as strategic planning, policy development, financing, capital improvements, technology, PR and marketing, community outreach, and the overall well-being of the school and its stakeholders.

What is the time commitment?

We meet monthly (after school) during the school year, September through June. Members also lead and serve on subcommittees which are formed to study and make recommendations on various school-related issues throughout the year.

How long do members serve?

Board members are selected for a term of three years and may be re-elected for a second term of three years.

How do I let you know I'm interested?

Any person who is an active member of the St. Paul the Apostle School and/or Parish is eligible. To be considered, please submit a resume and cover letter to:

Lisa Chipps
Lisachipps@yahoo.com

Submissions must be received no later than Monday, March 30, 2026.

Thank you for your stewardship of our parish community!
