The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Lector: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

The Responsorial Psalm musical notation is a single staff with the lyrics: R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is ev-er-last-ing.

Verses: Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever."
Let the house of Aaron say, "His mercy endures forever."
Let those who fear the LORD say, "His mercy endures forever." R.

I was hard pressed and was falling, but the LORD helped me.
My strength and my courage is the LORD, and he has been my savior.
The joyful shout of victory in the tents of the just: R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.
This is the day the LORD has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it. R.

SECOND READING

1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord;
blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe! R.

GOSPEL

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

SPRINKLING WITH HOLY WATER (Page 6)

NICENE CREED (Vigil & 7:30 & 11:30 & 5:00)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Inside Safe Thanks You

Seventy-Five unhoused men and women will not only be recipients of hygiene kits, including blankets, and towels, but more importantly, experience a place to sleep and feel safe for the first time in years. And, in addition to the kits, we had more than 600 individual hygiene items that supplemented the kits. It is thanks to the generosity of the parishioners of St. Paul's.

We also want to thank the crew of 6 students from St. Paul's school who organized the set up of all the hygiene items, along with the candidates/elect and catechists of the OCIA and parishioners who created all the kits for the city to distribute. We were told that our kits were given to St. Joseph's Center who are providing the case management to the unhoused.

Seminarian Spotlight: Andrew Ouma, C.S.P.

Your contributions to the Annual Paulist Appeal fund graduate school tuition, housing, and more for our Paulist seminarians such as Andrew Ouma.

He entered the Paulist novitiate in 2023 and made his First Promises in 2024.

A native of Kenya, Andrew earned an undergraduate degree in Philosophy with a minor in Religious Studies from The Catholic University of Eastern Africa in Nairobi.

Prior to entering the Paulist novitiate, he spent several years living in Brazil where he taught English to middle school students.

"I like seminary because it gives me the opportunity to sit down with the very fundamental questions of life, to be able to know and decide what God wants me to do in life, especially in terms of being a servant of the Church," said Andrew.
