The end of all spiritual exercises is to place the soul in those dispositions which are most favorable to bring down upon it the grace of God and to place it under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight. Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?" His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years." Elisha said, "Call her." When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

Lector: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 89:2-3, 16-17, 18-19

Verses:
The promises of the LORD I will sing forever, through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness.
For you have said, "My kindness is established forever;" in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness. R.

Blessed the people who know the joyful shout; in the light of your countenance, O LORD, they walk.
At your name they rejoice all the day, and through your justice they are exalted. R.

You are the splendor of their strength, and by your favor our horn is exalted.
For to the LORD belongs our shield, and the Holy One of Israel, our king. R.

SECOND READING Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Lector: The Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation;
announce the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. R.

GOSPEL Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.""Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple— amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord. All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Habitat for Humanity® Greater Los Angeles | ReBUILD LA®

Pacific Palisades & Malibu

COMMUNITY BUILD

September 23–26, 2026

When LA Rebuilds Together, Families Come Home.

WHAT

A four-day rebuilding and community revitalization event focused on helping wildfire survivors return home and begin rebuilding their lives.

This is a multi-day event where community members, builders, and corporate partners will work together to rebuild and complete critical repairs and improvements on impacted homes and community spaces, including landscaping, exterior repairs, and neighborhood revitalization projects.

WHO

Hosted by Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles through its ReBUILD LA® recovery initiative.

This event will unite:
- More than 500 volunteers
- Wildfire survivors and local residents
- Corporate and civic leaders
- Entertainment and media partners
- Construction professionals and skilled trades
- Community organizations from across Los Angeles

Side by side, volunteers and survivors will work together to help restore homes, neighborhoods and hope.

CALL TO ACTION

Join Habitat LA and help rebuild more than homes. Help rebuild stability, community, and hope for families recovering from wildfire devastation.

For more information, contact

Chris Untiet
Habitat LA Faith Relations Director

WHY

While the headlines may have faded, recovery is still far from over for thousands of families impacted by the wildfire.

The Palisades fire burned more than 23,000 acres, destroyed nearly 7,000 structures, and left entire communities forever changed. Families continue to face rising construction costs, insurance gaps, financial uncertainty, and the overwhelming challenge of rebuidling their lives.

Often overlooked in the recovery story are hundreds of low-income households from Pacific Palisades and Malibu who lost their homes and remain displaced today. Habitat LA is working with these longtime residents to rebuild. Without our support, they may never be able to return to the communities they call home.

For many, most of their assets were tied to the value of their home. And when their home and belongings were lost, so was all of the wealth they had built over their lifetime. Returning home is not just about rebuilding a house. It is about restoring stability, preserving community and reclaiming a sense of normalcy after unimaginable loss.

THE IMPACT

Through ReBUILD LA, Habitat LA is already working with qualified wildfire survivors who have deep roots in these communities but lack the financial means to rebuild on their own. We are moving families from immediate relief to long-term recover by:

- Repairing and rebuilding homes
- Supporting neighborhood restoration
- Mobilizing volunteers and community partners
- Providing equitable rebuilding support for wildfire survivors

Every wall raised and every home repaired represents something bigger: a family moving one step closer to coming home.

WHY IT MATTERS

Recovery is a marathon, not a moment.
Long after media attention fades, families still need support, resources, and a community willing to stand beside them for the long road ahead.

Habitat LA believes recovery should not be reserved only for those with wealth, insurance access, or financial flexibility. Every family deserves a fair opportunity to return home, regardless of income.
